About the cover

Henry Melchior Muhlenberg
(September 6, 1711–October 7, 1787)

The portrait of Muhlenberg, painted by Minneapolis artist Harold Henricksen, depicts significant events in the life of the immigrant minister. The artist was assisted in his rendering of the cover by the research and cooperation of Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia, Lutheran Archives Center at Philadelphia, and Augustus Lutheran Church in Trappe, Pennsylvania.

On September 22, 1742—250 years ago—the Rev. Henry Melchior Muhlenberg first reached North America. He landed at Charleston, South Carolina, and proceeded to Savannah, Georgia. Subsequently, he sailed northward to Pennsylvania, arriving at Philadelphia on November 25, 1742.

In 1743, he led in the building of Augustus Lutheran Church at Trappe, Pennsylvania (see cover). The “Trappe” Church is the oldest unaltered Lutheran church building in the United States.

Muhlenberg became a giant in Lutheran church life as a pioneer pastor and leader. The following commentary on Muhlenberg’s impact on Lutheranism in North America was written by Dr. Helmut T. Lehmann, professor emeritus at the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia and an expert on Muhlenberg’s life and work:

What is so noteworthy about this German Lutheran pastor who came to our shores 250 years ago as an immigrant?

For one thing, Muhlenberg had a profound commitment to his call as an ordained minister of Word and sacrament. He had received and accepted a call to Pennsylvania congregations in Philadelphia, New Hanover, and Providence (Trappe). It was a call for three years; he stayed 45 years (1742-1787). This commitment to his call was rooted in the piety of his homeland. He felt he had to be put where there was a need. He also felt strongly about having a valid call from his church.

As an immigrant pastor, he had to pioneer new ways of gathering and establishing Lutheran congregations. He soon discovered that the “secular arm,” the state, did not come to the aid of the church in dealing with its concerns and problems. In this free land, he realized that he had to rely only on the promises of God.

In a country so different from the one he had left behind, Muhlenberg recognized the need to bring congregations into an organization. Together with his fellow pastors and lay persons, he organized the first Lutheran synod in North America in 1748, known as the Ministerium of Pennsylvania. Each congregation had to send a delegate to the synod’s assembly. Muhlenberg was elected president. He exercised leadership in a collegial manner. He knew he lacked episcopal authority and laid no claim to it.

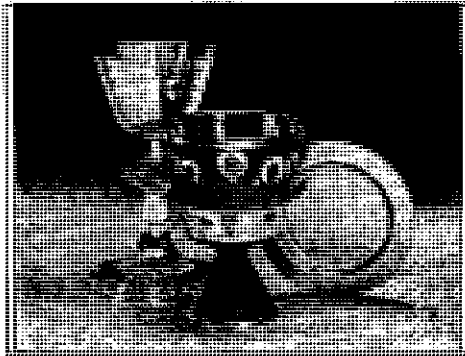

The American Revolution presented Muhlenberg, the immigrant, with problems. George III was the ruler of his native Hannover. He also was the ruler of Pennsylvania. During the revolution, Muhlenberg maintained neutrality. He did not want to take sides. Two of his sons more than compensated for their father’s neutrality. Peter became a major general in the Revolutionary Army. Frederick became the first Speaker of the House of Representatives.

While he experienced difficulties in coming to terms with his citizenship in the land of his adoption, Muhlenberg, the immigrant pastor, made the adjustments necessary to gather congregations and to make the Lutheran Confessions serve them as a stabilizing factor in a free and pluralistic society. In so doing, he was driven by a commitment to his call as an ordained minister of Jesus Christ.

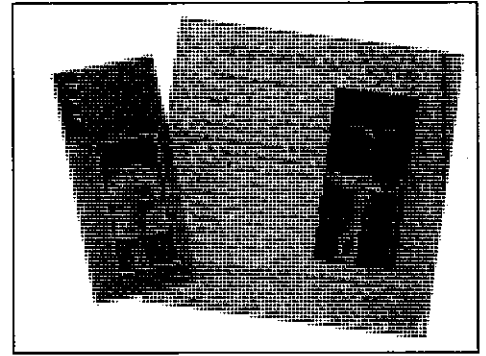

The impact of his commitment to orderly and confessional church life for Lutherans and his strong legacy of leadership, established during his ministry two and a half centuries ago, continue to benefit and influence our church today as we move toward a new century.

DIVISIONS

DIVISION FOR CONGREGATIONAL MINISTRIES

8765 West Higgins Road
Chicago, Illinois 60631-4188
Telephone: 312/380-2560
800/638-3522

The Division for Congregational Ministries, working in partnership with congregations, synods, regions, and other units of the churchwide organization, provides support for congregations as they carry out their ministry. It also provides a financial support program for this church. To fulfill these responsibilities, the division (a) develops integrated programs and resources, and provides services, in cooperation with other churchwide units, in support of congregations in such major areas as worship, education, evangelism, stewardship, congregational social ministry, congregational planning, service and justice, and lay leadership; and (b) develops and delivers programs to enable members and congregations to respond financially in support of this church's ministry in congregations, synods, agencies, institutions, and the churchwide organization.

The Division for Congregational Ministries also relates to four churchwide organizations: Lutheran Youth Organization, Lutheran Men in Mission, ELCA Outdoor Ministries and Lutheran Laity Movement for Stewardship.

Chicago, Illinois 60631-4195
Telephone: 312/380-2870

The Division for Ministry supports the ministry of all the baptized: laity, ordained ministers, and associates in ministry. It provides services, programs, grants, and counsel to undergird the diverse ministries of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Special emphases include: recruitment and guidance of candidates for church occupations; opportunities for continuing education; advice and financial support for theological education; development of standards for ministry; promotion of the ministry of all the baptized; support of those in ministries of specialized pastoral care; publication of Lutheran Partners; and relationship to the ELCA Deaconess Community. Partnership is maintained with regions and synods through a network of deployed staff members. A major study of the theology and practice of ministry is a current assignment of the division.

CONFERENCE OF BISHOPS

8765 West Higgins Road
Chicago, Illinois 60631-4196
Telephone: 312/380-2550

The Conference of Bishops meets at least twice a year. Made up of the 65 synodical bishops as well as the bishop and secretary of the church, the conference provides opportunities for worship, spiritual renewal, and theological enrichment for those serving in these capacities. Staff services for the Conference of Bishops are provided by the Department for Synodical Relations. The Conference of Bishops provides a first call/appointment process for candidates and support resources for rostered persons.

The conference has a special relationship with the Division for Ministry as it reviews recommendations related to ordained ministers and associates in ministry. The synodical bishops also work closely with the Department for Ecumenical Affairs in developing ecumenical documents and promoting Christian unity.

ROSTER OF CONGREGATIONS

As of August 1, 1991

The roster of congregations includes all member congregations as well as forming congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. All changes and corrections in this roster should be reported to the office of the synod in which the congregation is located. The synod office will report the changes to the Office of the Secretary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Congregations under development have been included on the roster through August 1, 1991. (Refer to the listing of congregations under development on pages 251-255.) Congregations that have consolidated, merged, withdrawn, or disbanded are identified on the roster through August 1, 1991. (Refer to listing on page 257.) The location of the congregation is listed on the first line with the mailing address following on the second line. If the location and mailing address are identical, the address and zip code are listed on the first line.

Membership and financial statistics are those reported by the congregations as of December 31, 1990. An asterisk (*) preceding the membership statistics of a congregation indicates that statistics for 1990 were not available and figures are those of a previous year.

The membership statistics are: BAPT.—baptized membership; AV. ATT.—average worship attendance. The financial statistics are: CURR. EXPENSES—current operating expenses; BENEV.—the sum of Proportionate Share, World Hunger Appeal, Mission Partners, Missionary Sponsorship, designated gifts, ELCA mission appeals, synod special benevolences, local community benevolences, and other benevolences.

Each congregation's five-digit identification number is shown after the region/synod designation.
