SMART LIVING

When you live in Christ, you are already "living smart." "Smart living" means that you live your life according to Christ-centered principles. It's a new way to think about how you celebrate everything you do.

Smart Living will help your congregation:

- Increase and sustain financial giving.
- Increase and deepen the faith connections among members.
- Increase members' sense of belonging and contribution to your faith community.

The Smart Living stewardship program presents the best of stewardship, sound fund-raising principles, and effective follow-up approaches. It is a relational visit program that offers long-term benefits to individual members and to your congregation.

BUILDING RELATIONSHIPS

WITH GOD.

WITH CHURCH.

WITH EACH OTHER.

Armed with the Bible and our Confirmation Ministry resources, your students build on their relationship with God and carry their faith into the world. They learn how to make healthy decisions in the face of life's challenges. Learn to think and question rather than just fill in the blanks. Learn how to handle doubt, make healthy life choices, and most importantly, live their faith.

You choose what works for your church. Build your own confirmation program. Develop your study of the small catechism and Bible. We invite you to take a look at the best of our Confirmation Ministry resources. And begin building relationships with God. With Church. With each other.

EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH IN AMERICA 1999 UNIT SPENDING ALLOCATIONS

This church shall seek to function as people of God through congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization, all of which shall be interdependent. Each part, while fully the church, recognizes that it is not the whole church, and therefore lives in a partnership relationship with the others (ELCA Constitution, Chapter 8, provision 11).

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America shall have a churchwide organization that shall function interdependently with the congregations and synods of this church. The churchwide organization shall serve on behalf of and in support of this church's members, congregations, and synods in proclaiming the Gospel, reaching out in witness and service both globally and throughout the territory of this church, nurturing the members of this church in the daily life of faith, and manifesting the unity of this church with the whole Church of Jesus Christ (ELCA Constitution, Chapter 11, provision 11).

The division's index page on the World Wide Web contains links to all ministry areas, as well as paths to resources offered online. The page is at <http://www.elca.org/dcm/congres.html>. A complete and current staff E-mail directory is at <http://www.elca.org/co/anatomy/4a.html>. If you wish to send E-mail to the division, but aren't sure whom to contact, please mail to mrothaar@elca.org. It will be referred to the staff member most able to help you.

The Division for Congregational Ministries, working in partnership with congregations, synods, regions, and other units of the churchwide organization, provides support for congregations as they carry out their ministry. It also provides a financial support program for this church. To fulfill these responsibilities, the division (a) develops integrated programs and resources and provides services, in cooperation with other churchwide units, in support of congregations in such major areas as worship, education, evangelism, stewardship, congregational social ministry, congregational planning, and lay leadership; and (b) develops and delivers programs to enable members and congregations to respond financially in support of this church's ministry in congregations, synods, agencies, institutions, and the churchwide organization.

The Division for Congregational Ministries also relates to four churchwide organizations: Lutheran Youth Organization, Lutheran Men in Mission, ELCA Outdoor Ministries, and Lutheran Laity Movement for Stewardship.

LUTHERAN ASSOCIATION FOR MARITIME MINISTRY

The Lutheran Association for Maritime Ministry (LAMM) consists of Lutheran congregations, Lutheran Maritime Ministry agencies, chaplains, missionaries, pastors, and volunteers gathered for the purpose of ministry among international seafarers, American merchant mariners including military sealift command, and commercial fishers. LAMM members use a holistic approach to care for seafarers' spiritual and "far away from home" needs, and more importantly, call and empower seafarers to a life of service and ministry. LAMM has been formally recognized by the Division for Outreach of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

The Division for Church in Society helps this church to understand and respond sensitively and effectively to the needs of human beings, society, and the environment.

This division studies social issues and prepares social statements for this church's consideration and action. It coordinates this church's hunger program and its domestic disaster response. Congregations receive help from this division in providing ministry with people in need, including those with disabilities, and in developing programs that help poor persons gain economic independence. This division is responsible for domestic refugee concerns and, accordingly, relates to Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service and other international agencies.

This division is responsible for this church's ministry of service through some 260 affiliated social ministry organizations. It grants and maintains church affiliation with these organizations and through Lutheran Services in America develops a comprehensive delivery system among social ministry organizations, congregations, and community organizations.

This division carries out this church's advocacy with national and international governmental bodies and with institutions in the private sector and coordinates its advocacy with state governments.

The Lutheran is the periodical of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Circulation is 650,000, reaching about one-half of the households of ELCA members. Published twelve times each year, the magazine tells the story of the church, its people, and the world of religion through sections on "Living the Faith", "Values and Society", "In Our Churches", and "Our Church at Work." Each issue also contains in-depth treatment of a topic suitable for group study. News supplements are included for each synod. The Churchwide Assembly elects the editor for a four-year term, and an eleven-member advisory committee, elected by the Church Council, has responsibility for the magazine.

The board also administers benefit programs for church institutions affiliated with the ELCA.

CONFERENCE OF BISHOPS

8765 West Higgins Road
Chicago, Illinois 60631-4196
Telephone: 773/380-2553

The Conference of Bishops meets at least twice a year. Made up of the 65 synodical bishops as well as the presiding bishop and secretary of this church, the conference provides opportunities for worship, spiritual renewal, and theological enrichment for those serving in these capacities. Staff services for the Conference of Bishops are provided by the Department for Synodical Relations. The Conference of Bishops provides a first call/appointment process for candidates and support resources for rostered persons.

The conference has a special relationship with the Division for Ministry as it reviews recommendations related to ordained ministers and associates in ministry. The synodical bishops also work closely with the Department for Ecumenical Affairs in developing ecumenical documents and promoting Christian unity.

ROSTER OF CONGREGATIONS

As of September 1, 1998

The roster of congregations includes all member congregations as well as forming congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. All changes and corrections in this roster should be reported to the office of the synod in which the congregation is located. The synod office will report the changes to the Office of the Secretary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Congregations under development have been included on the roster through September 15, 1998. (Refer to the listing of congregations under development on pages 274-277.) Congregations that have consolidated, merged, withdrawn, or disbanded are identified on the roster through August 1, 1998. (Refer to listing on page 279-281.)

The location of the congregation is listed on the first line with the mailing address following on the second line. If the location and mailing address are identical, the address and zip code are listed on the first line.

Membership and financial statistics are those reported by the congregations as of December 31, 1997. An asterisk (*) preceding the membership statistics of a congregation indicates that statistics for 1997 were not available and figures are those of a previous year.

The membership statistics are: BAPT.—baptized membership; AV. ATT.—average worship attendance. The financial statistics are: CURR. EXPENSES—current operating expenses; BENEV.—the sum of Mission Support, World Hunger Appeal—Disaster Response, Mission Partners, Missionary Sponsorship, specific mission support (designated gifts), vision for mission offering, synod special benevolences, local community benevolences, and other benevolences.

Each congregation's five-digit identification number is shown after the region/synod designation.

ROSTER OF ORDAINED MINISTERS

As of September 1, 1998

Following is an alphabetical listing of ordained ministers on the roster of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America as of September 1, 1998. All changes of address and corrections should be reported to the office of the synod in which the person is listed on the roster. The synod office, in turn, is to report these changes to the Rev. Lowell G. Almen, secretary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Ordained ministers who have retired are identified with (RT) following name. Ordained ministers whose deaths were reported to the Office of the Secretary through September 1, 1997, together with other removals, are listed on pages 510-512. Those persons are not included on this roster. An asterisk (*) following a name identifies persons under suspension.
