On the cover: This original painting, Martin Luther, Reformer, is the work of the late Rutherford Boyd, Leonia, New Jersey, an artist who produced this study in 1947 after extensive reading on Martin Luther.

Boyd used the statue of Luther by the late Professor William Mues of New York as his model in this painting of the reformer. In this representation Luther holds his 1534 translation of the Bible. The Wartburg Castle—where Luther, as a prisoner of his friends, was protected from enemies of his day and where he completed a major part of his epoch-making Bible translation—is depicted (upper right).

The artist has gathered about the head of Luther billowing clouds inflamed with volcanic color. The clouds may reflect the turbulent social, economic, political, and religious developments of the sixteenth century, but also the clouds in the artist's description symbolize the conflagrations that God's Word has withstood throughout the centuries. Past the sturdy Saxon in the painting drift the noxious mists of unbelief, false faith, and sentimentalism. The promises of God's Word and faith are impervious to them.

This painting originally was placed in the boardroom of the Lutheran Church House on Madison Avenue at 37th Street in New York, headquarters of the United Lutheran Church in America (ULCA) and later the Lutheran Church in America. It was presented through the generosity of Dr. Henry Beisler, a former treasurer of the ULCA.

Upon the formation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) on January 1, 1988, the painting was transferred to the ELCA's churchwide office at the Lutheran Center in Chicago.

The presiding bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America is elected to a six-year term by the Churchwide Assembly. In addition to fulfilling such roles as preacher, teacher, and administrator of the sacraments, which traditionally belong to the office of bishop, the presiding bishop of this church serves as president and chief executive officer of the corporation and oversees the staff, budget, and overall administration of the church. The presiding bishop chairs the biennial Churchwide Assembly and provides for the preparation of agendas for the assembly, the Church Council and its executive committee, the Conference of Bishops, and the Cabinet of Executives. The presiding bishop is also the chief ecumenical officer of this church, and provides leadership and care for the bishops of the synods.

EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH IN AMERICA 2008 UNIT SPENDING ALLOCATIONS

This church shall seek to function as people of God through congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization, all of which shall be interdependent. Each part, while fully the church, recognizes that it is not the whole church and therefore lives in a partnership relationship with the others (ELCA Constitution, provision 8.11.).

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America shall have a churchwide organization that shall function interdependently with the congregations and synods of this church. The churchwide organization shall serve on behalf of and in support of this church's members, congregations, and synods in proclaiming the Gospel, reaching out in witness and service both globally and throughout the territory of this church, nurturing the members of this church in the daily life of faith, and manifesting the unity of this church with the whole Church of Jesus Christ (ELCA Constitution, 11.11.). The following is the budget proposal approved at the 2007 Churchwide Assembly.

This unit brings together ELCA churchwide ministries that support congregations in their call to be faithful, welcoming, and generous. It assists congregations, synods, and institutions and agencies of this church to grow in evangelical outreach. Among its responsibilities are supporting discipleship, stewardship, and lifelong learning; increasing awareness about the centrality of prayer; starting and renewing congregations; and implementing the ELCA evangelism strategy and pertinent portions of all ethnic-specific strategies.

This unit is responsible for the mission of the ELCA outside the United States and includes ministries that enable this church to deepen and extend its global, ecumenical, and interreligious relationships. The unit accompanies companion churches and inter-Lutheran and ecumenical partners to make Christ known through proclamation and service in other countries, facilitates dialogue with people of other faiths, and engages in common efforts to build just and peaceful communities. It develops and recommends policy relating to international relationships and activities and develops programs on behalf of the ELCA. It assists ELCA congregations, synods, other churchwide units, and agencies and institutions to receive the gifts of companion churches. The Global Mission unit cooperates with global partners in promoting justice and enables the perspective of companions to enhance and deepen the ELCA's public witness. Global Mission serves as the primary channel through which churches in other countries engage in mission with and to the ELCA.

This unit brings together ELCA churchwide ministries involved in the development and support of faithful, wise, and courageous leaders whose vocations serve God's mission in a pluralistic world. This unit assists this church and its institutions in equipping all people to live out their callings for the sake of the world. This unit seeks mutual accountability among congregations, synods, institutions, and churchwide units for engaging all arenas of knowledge in the context of faith and fostering a culture of theological wisdom. Responsibilities include: encouraging a sense of vocation in children, youth, and adults; lifting up the centrality of the church in education and education in the church; sustaining the foundational place of seminaries and theological education; overseeing the preparation of people for ordained and lay rostered ministry; and serving as a steward of the ELCA's networks and systems for leadership development and support for leaders in church and world.

Chicago, Illinois 60631-4101
Telephone: 773/380-2710
Fax: 773/380-2707

Web site: www.elca.org/churchinsociety

The Church in Society unit leads this church in stepping forward as a public church that witnesses boldly to God's love for all that God has created.

This unit studies social issues, prepares social statements for this church's consideration and action, and promotes moral deliberation. Congregations receive assistance in developing programs and strategies that help people in poverty, in caring for creation, and in developing their communities. This program unit is responsible for domestic refugee concerns and, accordingly, relates to Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service.

The Church in Society unit coordinates the ELCA World Hunger Program. It administers ELCA Domestic Disaster Response and, in cooperation with The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, Lutheran Disaster Response.

The unit is responsible for this church's ministry of service through some 280 affiliated social ministry organizations. It grants and maintains church affiliation with these organizations and through Lutheran Services in America develops a comprehensive delivery system among social ministry organizations, congregations, and community organizations.

The unit for Church in Society carries out this church's advocacy with national and international governmental bodies and with institutions in the private sector, and coordinates its advocacy with state governments.

Addressing sexism and advocating for full participation and equal opportunity in church and society for women is the assignment of Justice for Women, an initiative of this unit.

As people of God, we are claimed, gathered, and sent to make Christ known in every corner of the world to help develop strong ministries and leaders. This unit leads, coordinates, educates, and holds accountable churchwide efforts and programs with synods, regions, and agencies and institutions as they identify, develop, and strengthen the multicultural dimensions of their work. This unit has the responsibility to coordinate the churchwide implementation of ethnic-specific strategies and has the authority to coordinate, review, and monitor all churchwide programs to maintain and enhance the ELCA's central commitment to become an antiracist, multicultural church. Fundamental to the work of this unit is a church that upholds a zero tolerance of racism to achieve justice and equality for all people.

Augsburg Fortress, Publishing House of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, is responsible for publishing, producing, and distributing publications to accomplish the mission of this church. It works in close cooperation with other churchwide units through resource management teams. It publishes Augsburg and Fortress Press books, a variety of curricula, worship and music resources, and other resources and periodicals for congregations. The publishing house makes available ecclesiastical arts, books, and resources from other publishers, church supplies, and gifts. These resources are distributed by mail order through a centralized distribution center in the United States and through retail center and seminary stores in the United States and Canada.

Women of all ages, in more than 7,000 congregational and special units, carry out the mission of Women of the ELCA—mobilizing women to act boldly on their faith in Jesus Christ

Whether locally or globally, Women of the ELCA offers programs, resources, and events that support women at all stages of their Christian lives. Our diverse community is committed to helping women grow spiritually and emotionally, helping them find their place in the world as Christian women.

Women of the ELCA is an incorporated, self-supporting organization operating with the policies of the ELCA. The churchwide triennial convention and the elected executive board conduct the organization's business.

The ELCA Communication Services unit coordinates an overall communication strategy for this church for internal and external audiences. It manages the ELCA's presence on the World Wide Web (www.elca.org) and provides administrative and budgetary counsel for The Lutheran magazine. The ELCA News Service gathers and disseminates news about this church and its members, and places guests and features in public media. The unit responds to inquiries about this church through its Resource Information Service (800/638-3522), and facilitates dialogue around this church and ecumenically through the LutherLink online community.

ELCA Communication Services also provides public relations counsel and support to the churchwide organization and synods; produces Seeds for the Parish for congregational leaders; coordinates marketing for the ELCA; provides communication evangelism resources for congregations; produces the Grace Matters radio program, video and television productions, and programming for national television networks; provides for non-English translation of interpretation and resource materials; provides media education; produces events; and maintains relationships with communication offices of other church bodies and ecumenical agencies.

The Lutheran is the periodical of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Circulation is 335,000, reaching about 837,500 ELCA readers. Published 12 times each year, the magazine tells the story of this church, its people, and the world of religion through sections titled "People and Faith," "Congregations and Community," and "Church and World." Each issue also includes "Currents," a section offering perspectives on issues in the news, and an in-depth treatment of a topic suitable for group study. News supplements are included for some synods. The Church Council elects the editor for a four-year term, and a nine-member advisory committee, elected by the Church Council, has responsibility for the magazine.

The ELCA Foundation assists individuals and congregations in creating and implementing gift plans in support of ministries within the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. The ELCA Foundation conducts a program encouraging major and deferred gifts on behalf of this church, its congregations, synods, churchwide units, agencies, and institutions. Among the services the ELCA Foundation provides are: consultation and support to members, offering educational materials and seminars on planned giving without cost or obligation, working in partnership with congregations, synods, and ministries of this church to identify prospective major and deferred gift donors, and helping individuals and congregations invest in ministries of the ELCA.

The ELCA Foundation also administers the ELCA Endowment Fund Pooled Trust. The Trust is a professionally managed investment pool available to all ministries of the ELCA. The minimum investment is $25,000.

The Board of Pensions administers the Pension and Other Benefits Program of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, including the benefit plans that continue from the ELCA's predecessor churches. Congregations, churchwide units, and church-related agencies are the primary sponsors of participants in the plans. In addition, ELCA ordained ministers working for certain other qualifying organizations may be sponsored by their employers. The board also administers benefit programs for church institutions affiliated with the ELCA.

The Board of Pensions is an incorporated, self-supporting unit of the ELCA and its executive director serves as president. The board includes persons with expertise in investments, insurance, and pensions, as well as six persons who are participants in the plans.

Human Resources is a section in the Office of the Presiding Bishop. Human Resources is responsible for staffing and staff position descriptions, salaries, fair practices, equal employment and recruiting practices, payroll, and recommending personnel policies to the Church Council. Employees have access to such services as employee assistance and professional training and development opportunities through this section. Human Resources develops and administers compensation and is responsible for implementing and maintaining positive, proactive employee relations. Human Resources designs and administers a performance management program and is responsible for maintaining personnel records. The section provides advice and counsel to other expressions of this church on various human resources issues.

CONFERENCE OF BISHOPS

8765 West Higgins Road
Chicago, Illinois 60631-4101
Telephone: 773/380-2553

The Conference of Bishops meets at least twice a year. Made up of the 65 synodical bishops as well as the presiding bishop and secretary of this church, the conference provides opportunities for worship, spiritual renewal, and theological enrichment for those serving in these capacities. Staff services for the Conference of Bishops are provided by the Synodical Relations section and the Office of the Secretary. The Conference of Bishops provides a first call or appointment process for candidates and support resources for rostered persons.

The conference has a special relationship with the Vocation and Education program unit as it reviews recommendations related to ordained ministers and rostered laypersons. The synodical bishops also work closely with the Ecumenical and Inter-Religious Relations section in developing ecumenical documents and promoting Christian unity.

ROSTER OF CONGREGATIONS

As of September 21, 2007

The roster of congregations includes all member congregations as well as forming congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. All changes and corrections to this roster should be reported to the office of the synod in which the congregation is located. The synod office will report the changes to the Office of the Secretary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Congregation e-mail address changes may be reported directly to the Office of the Secretary at conginfo@elca.org. Links to congregation Web sites can be found on the ELCA Web site, www.elca.org. Information about linking a congregation's Web site to the ELCA Web site is also available at www.elca.org.

Congregations under development have been included on the roster through September 21, 2007. (Refer to the listing of congregations under development on pages 314–318.) Congregations that have consolidated, merged, withdrawn, or disbanded are identified on the roster through September 21, 2007.

The location of the congregation is listed on the first line with the mailing address following on the second line. If the location and mailing address are identical, the address and zip code are listed on the first line.

Membership and financial statistics are those reported by the congregations as of December 31, 2006. An asterisk (*) preceding the membership statistics of a congregation indicates that statistics for 2006 were not available and figures are those of a previous year.

The names in the Rostered Staff column are those of pastors, associates in ministry, diaconal ministers, and deaconesses rostered by the ELCA or one of its full communion partners.

The membership statistics are: BAPT.—baptized membership; AV. ATT.—average worship attendance. The financial statistics are: CURR. EXPENSES—current operating expenses; BENEV.—the sum of Mission Support, World Hunger Appeal, Disaster Response, Mission Partners, Missionary Sponsorship, Mission Founders, specific mission support (designated gifts), Vision for Mission offering, synod special benevolences, local community benevolences, and other benevolences.

Each congregation's five-digit identification number is shown after the region/synod designation.

FULL COMMUNION COOPERATION

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America has established relationships of full communion with the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), the Reformed Church in America, the United Church of Christ, the Moravian Church in America, and The Episcopal Church. Full communion agreements provide for the existence of federated congregations, union congregations, and the interchangeability of clergy.

Federated congregations are congregations that are formed and maintained "with the approval of both the synod in which the congregation is located and the comparable ecclesiastical entity of one or more church bodies with which a relationship of full communion has been established" (churchwide bylaw 9.91.01.). Union congregations are "formed by two separate congregations that shall continue to exist as separate but cooperating entities. The separate congregations in a union congregation shall be related to their respective church bodies that have established a relationship of full communion. . ." (churchwide bylaw 9.91.02). Clergy from another church body with which this church has established a relationship of full communion serve under authorization from the appropriate synodical bishop.

ROSTER OF ORDAINED MINISTERS

As of September 14, 2007

Following is an alphabetical listing of ordained ministers on the roster of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America as of September 14, 2007. All changes of address and corrections should be reported to the office of the synod in which the person is listed on the roster. The synod office, in turn, is to report these changes to David D. Swartling, secretary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Changes in e-mail addresses may be reported directly to the Office of the Secretary at leaderinfo@elca.org.

Ordained ministers who have retired are identified with (RT) following name. Ordained ministers whose deaths were reported to the Office of the Secretary through September 14, 2007, and other removals, are listed on pages 580-582. Those persons are not included on this roster. An asterisk (*) following a name identifies persons under suspension.
