This is the wood

That stokes the fire

That warms the youth

That gather at the church camp

That started with your investment.

PLANT SEEDS FOR YOUR RETIREMENT. AND SOW THE CHURCH'S FUTURE.

If you've been to church camp, you know — it's an experience that stays with you for life. That's why the Mission Investment Fund is financing the building of Lutheranch in rural Georgia, so Lutherans both old and young have a unique new place to grow in faith. Loans like these are possible thanks to individuals and congregations who choose to invest their money in something that does more than just earn interest: it warms hearts. To learn more, contact us at 877.886.3522 or elca.org/mif.

EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH IN AMERICA 2009 UNIT SPENDING ALLOCATIONS

This church shall seek to function as people of God through congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization, all of which shall be interdependent.  Chicago, Illinois 60631-4101
 Telephone: 773/380-2710
 Fax: 773/380-2707

The Church in Society unit leads this church in stepping forward as a public church that witnesses boldly to God's love for all that God has created.

This unit studies social issues, prepares social statements for this church's consideration and action, and promotes moral deliberation. Congregations receive assistance in developing programs and strategies that help people in poverty, in caring for creation, and in developing their communities. This program unit is responsible for domestic refugee concerns and, accordingly, relates to Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service.

The Church in Society unit coordinates the ELCA World Hunger Program. It administers ELCA Domestic Disaster Response and, in cooperation with The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, Lutheran Disaster Response.

The unit is responsible for this church's ministry of service through some 285 affiliated social ministry organizations. It grants and maintains church affiliation with these organizations and through Lutheran Services in America develops a comprehensive delivery system among social ministry organizations, congregations, and community organizations.

The unit for Church in Society carries out this church's advocacy with national and international governmental bodies and with institutions in the private sector, and coordinates its advocacy with state governments.

Addressing sexism and advocating for full participation and equal opportunity in church and society for women is the assignment of Justice for Women, an initiative of this unit.

This unit is responsible for the mission of the ELCA outside the United States and includes ministries that enable this church to deepen and extend its global, ecumenical, and interreligious relationships. The unit accompanies companion churches and inter-Lutheran and ecumenical partners to make Christ known through proclamation and service in other countries, facilitates dialogue with people of other faiths, and engages in common efforts to build just and peaceful communities. It develops and recommends policy relating to international relationships and activities and develops programs on behalf of the ELCA. It assists ELCA congregations, synods, other churchwide units, and agencies and institutions to receive the gifts of companion churches. The Global Mission unit cooperates with global partners in promoting justice and enables the perspective of companions to enhance and deepen the ELCA's public witness. Global Mission serves as the primary channel through which churches in other countries engage in mission with and to the ELCA.

The Lutheran is the periodical of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Circulation is 335,000, reaching about 837,500 ELCA readers. Published 12 times each year, the magazine tells the story of this church, its people, and the world of religion through sections titled "People and Faith," "Congregations and Community," and "Church and World." Each issue also includes "Currents," a section offering perspectives on issues in the news, and an in-depth treatment of a topic suitable for group study. News supplements are included for some synods. The Church Council elects the editor for a four-year term, and a nine-member advisory committee, elected by the Church Council, has responsibility for the magazine.

CONFERENCE OF BISHOPS

8765 West Higgins Road
Chicago, Illinois 60631-4101
Telephone: 773/380-2553

The Conference of Bishops meets at least twice a year. Made up of the 65 synodical bishops as well as the presiding bishop and secretary of this church, the conference provides opportunities for worship, spiritual renewal, and theological enrichment for those serving in these capacities. Staff services for the Conference of Bishops are provided by the Synodical Relations section and the Office of the Secretary. The Conference of Bishops provides a first call or appointment process for candidates and support resources for rostered persons.

The conference has a special relationship with the Vocation and Education program unit as it reviews recommendations related to ordained ministers and rostered laypersons. The synodical bishops also work closely with the Ecumenical and Inter-Religious Relations section in developing ecumenical documents and promoting Christian unity.

ROSTER OF CONGREGATIONS

As of September 19, 2008

The roster of congregations includes all member congregations as well as forming congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. All changes and corrections to this roster should be reported to the office of the synod in which the congregation is located. The synod office will report the changes to the Office of the Secretary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Congregation e-mail address changes may be reported directly to the Office of the Secretary at conginfo@elca.org. Links to congregation Web sites can be found on the ELCA Web site, www.elca.org. Information about linking a congregation's Web site to the ELCA Web site is also available at www.elca.org.

Congregations under development have been included on the roster through September 19, 2008. (Refer to the listing of congregations under development on pages 312-316.) Congregations that have consolidated, merged, withdrawn, or disbanded are identified on the roster through September 19, 2008.

The location of the congregation is listed on the first line with the mailing address following on the second line. If the location and mailing address are identical, the address and zip code are listed on the first line.

Membership and financial statistics are those reported by the congregations as of December 31, 2007. An asterisk (*) preceding the membership statistics of a congregation indicates that statistics for 2007 were not available and figures are those of a previous year.

The names in the Rostered Staff column are those of pastors, associates in ministry, diaconal ministers, and deaconesses rostered by the ELCA or one of its full communion partners.

The membership statistics are: BAPT.—baptized membership; AV. ATT.—average worship attendance. The financial statistics are: CURR. EXPENSES—current operating expenses; BENEV.—the sum of Mission Support, World Hunger Appeal, Disaster Response, Mission Partners, Missionary Sponsorship, Mission Founders, specific mission support (designated gifts), Vision for Mission offering, synod special benevolences, local community benevolences, and other benevolences.

Each congregation's five-digit identification number is shown after the region/synod designation.

FULL COMMUNION COOPERATION

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America has established relationships of full communion with the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), the Reformed Church in America, the United Church of Christ, the Moravian Church in America, and The Episcopal Church. Full communion agreements provide for the existence of federated congregations, union congregations, and the interchangeability of clergy.

Federated congregations are congregations that are formed and maintained "with the approval of both the synod in which the congregation is located and the comparable ecclesiastical entity of one or more church bodies with which a relationship of full communion has been established" (churchwide bylaw 9.91.01.). Union congregations are "formed by two separate congregations that shall continue to exist as separate but cooperating entities. The separate congregations in a union congregation shall be related to their respective church bodies that have established a relationship of full communion. . ." (churchwide bylaw 9.91.02). Clergy from another church body with which this church has established a relationship of full communion serve under authorization from the appropriate synodical bishop.
