OFFICIAL ROSTERS OF LAYPERSONS

Following are the alphabetical listings of persons on the official rosters of laypersons of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. These include commissioned Associates in Ministry, consecrated Deaconesses, and consecrated Diaconal Ministers.

All changes of address and position are to be reported to the synod office in which the person is listed on the roster. The synod office, in turn, is to report these changes promptly to Mr. David D. Swartling, secretary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Changes in e-mail addresses may be reported directly to the Office of the Secretary by sending them to leaderinfo@elca.org.

The roster of Associates in Ministry includes the following categories:

ELCA-Approved Associates in Ministry (Evangelical Lutheran Church in America)
Commissioned Church Staff (The American Lutheran Church)
Deaconesses and Deacons (Association of Evangelical Lutheran Churches)
Deaconesses (The American Lutheran Church)
Lay Professional Leaders (Lutheran Church in America)
Commissioned Teachers (Association of Evangelical Lutheran Churches)

The designation (RT) following names indicates retired persons.

A key to the region and synod designations in this list (examples: 3C, 9E) is printed at the beginning of the Roster of Ordained Ministers, page 296.

AUGSBURG COLLEGE

Set in a vibrant neighborhood at the heart of the Twin Cities, Augsburg College serves more than 4,000 students of diverse backgrounds: traditional weekday students, adult undergraduate students in weekend and evening programs, and graduate students. More than 50 undergraduate majors and seven graduate degrees—master's degrees in education, leadership, nursing, business, social work, and physician assistant studies, and a doctoral degree in nursing practice—are offered on Augsburg's main campus in Minneapolis, a campus in Rochester, Minn., and a study center in Bloomington, Minn.

Founded in 1869, Augsburg was the first seminary established by Norwegian Lutherans in the United States. Today, as in the very beginning, Augsburg students are sent into the community to learn from and to serve their neighbors. Guided by the faith and values of the Lutheran Church, Augsburg educates students to be informed citizens, thoughtful stewards, critical thinkers, and responsible leaders.

Augsburg demonstrates its commitments through the work of four signature centers: The Augsburg Center for Faith and Learning, the Sabo Center for Citizenship and Learning, the Center for Global Education, and the Strommen Center for Meaningful Work.

AUGUSTANA COLLEGE, ROCK ISLAND

Augustana was founded in 1860 as the first institution of the Augustana Lutheran Synod. It has since grown from a small school educating Scandinavian immigrants into a highly selective college of the liberal arts and sciences. Its 115-acre campus spreads across wooded hills rising from the Mississippi River, and its 2,500 students benefit from an 11:1 student-faculty ratio that allows for close, intentional ties between students and professors in more than 70 majors and related areas of study. Students benefit from a wide variety of opportunities for internships, field study, service learning, recreation, and cultural events in the Quad Cities and beyond, and participate in international study programs around the world. The distinct Augie Choice offers up to $2,000 for each student pursuing a peak learning experience, such as international study, research, or an internship in the junior or senior year. Augustana's many extra-curricular activities—including music ensembles, theatre, debate, broadcasting, publications, and a wide variety of professional, religious, departmental, political, service, and social organizations—complement a very successful athletics program in which students compete in the NCAA's Division III as well as many club and intramural sports. As expressed through its Five Faith Commitments (available online), Augustana continues to do what it has always done—challenge and prepare students for lives of leadership and service in our complex, ever-changing world.

AUGUSTANA COLLEGE, SIOUX FALLS

Although founded in Chicago, Ill., in 1860 along with sister college, Augustana in Rock Island, the college was caught up in the westward movement of Norwegian pioneers and ended up in Sioux Falls, S.D., in 1918, where it merged with the Lutheran Normal School to form the present institution. Today Augustana is a selective, residential, comprehensive college that offers its 1,800 students from 28 states and 24 countries a collegiate experience that combines a broad foundation in the liberal arts with preparation for professional careers and advanced study. Central to its mission are five core values—Christian, Liberal Arts, Excellence, Community, and Service—that serve as the foundation for the college's academic and student life programs. Augustana offers more than 50 majors and pre-professional specializations leading to the bachelor of arts degree. Because of its traditional strength in the natural sciences, over the last five years, acceptance to medical school has topped 90 percent, twice the national annual average. Extensive internship, study abroad, undergraduate research, and Civitas, the college's honors program, supplement the curriculum. In addition to its well-deserved reputation in the performing and visual arts, Augustana competes at the highest level of NCAA Division II athletics, most recently finishing eleventh of 288 institutions in the Learfield All Sports Award. The college's vision statement affirms that Augustana College aspires to be one of America's premier church-related colleges.

ELCA MEMBERS TEACHING RELIGION IN NON-ELCA SETTINGS

As of September 3, 2011

This directory lists ordained ministers, associates in ministry, and diaconal ministers of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) who are called to teach theology or religious studies (such as biblical studies, systematic theology, ecumenical studies, ethics, etc.) at non-ELCA-related schools of theology and other institutions of higher learning. In addition, the directory lists other ELCA members who have been identified as teaching similarly at such institutions. Corrections or additions should be submitted to the director for theological education in the Congregational and Synodical Mission unit.

LUTHERAN CAMPUS MINISTRY REPRESENTATIVES 2011-2012

As of September 15, 2011

The mission statement for campus ministry of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America is to invite people in academic settings more deeply into Jesus Christ and the community that bears his name, so that they can discover and fulfill their vocation as disciples. There are 188 Campus Ministry Agencies that serve separate public and non-ELCA private institutions across the country. These agencies are marked with an asterisk (*). More information about these Campus Ministry Agencies can be found at www.elca.org/campusministry, "Find a Ministry or Person." Additionally we have listed Cooperating Congregations in Campus Ministry. These are congregations that have been identified as relating to various academic institutions near or in their city. Also listed here are the chaplains for the 26 ELCA colleges and universities.

LUTHERAN SERVICES IN AMERICA
LUTHERAN SOCIAL MINISTRY ORGANIZATIONS

As of September 15, 2011

The listed social ministry organizations are all those affiliated with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Inter-Lutheran organizations include those also recognized by the Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod and are identified by an asterisk (*). All other organizations are ELCA-affiliated only. All are members of Lutheran Services in America and are separate corporations.

Each organization's corporate office is listed. Inquiries of any social ministry organization should be addressed directly to the organization. For details about services provided and for information about those organizations that provide services at multiple sites please consult Lutheran Services in America's Web site, www.lutheranservices.org, and search the "Growing Connections" database of all member organizations.

SPECIAL INTEREST CONFERENCES/ ETHNIC ASSOCIATIONS

This church cherishes the diversity of cultural and linguistic groups as they are brought together in the geographic synods, recognizing, however, that certain groups, for historical reasons, may be able to meet needs and share resources through special interest conferences, which for the present cannot occur in the regular life within the geographic synods (ELCA Constitution 8.41.). Special interest conferences relate to the Office of the Presiding Bishop. The Multicultural unit shall relate to and assist the African American Lutheran Association in the ELCA, the American Indian and Alaska Native Lutheran Association in the ELCA, the Association of Lutherans of Arab and Middle Eastern Heritage, the Association of Asians and Pacific Islanders in the ELCA, the Association of Latino Ministries in the ELCA, and the European-American Association in the ELCA, and encourage and support associations in their relationship with other churchwide units. (ELCA Continuing Resolution 16.12.E07.f.).

Church Year Calendar
2011–2013

APPOINTED READINGS AND PSALMS SUNDAYS AND FESTIVALS IN 2011–2013

1R = First Reading P = Psalmody A = Psalm Refrain/Antiphon

2R = Second Reading G = Gospel

Year B texts are used beginning with the First Sunday of Advent 2011; and Year C texts are used beginning with the First Sunday of Advent 2012; Psalm versification based on NRSV Bible. Italics indicate day is not a Sunday, principal festival, or observance.

Beginning with Lectionary 9, two series of readings are provided for each Sunday. In the first series, the Old Testament reading and psalm are chosen to be complementary with the gospel reading. The second series uses Old Testament readings ordered semicontinuously, with psalms that relate to these readings. The goals of the lectionary are best realized when one series or the other is used consistently throughout the Time after Pentecost.
