

BRIDGING YOUTH TO YOUTH

*“Dios es nuestro amparo y fortaleza,”
(God is our refuge and strength,)”*

– Psalm 46:1

Want to learn more about the ELCA's commitment to migrants and refugees?

Take part in our three-session, self-administered, educational modules to get a glimpse at the challenges that young people face in different parts of the world.

Choose from three modules to learn about:

- Young people in Central America
- Latino migrant youth in the United States
- Youth from Africa and the Middle East finding refuge with the St. Andrew's Refugee Services (StARS) program in Egypt

Each module includes three one-hour sessions:

1. Education about the migrant and refugee context
2. How the ELCA accompanies youth and how you can get involved
3. Real-time conversation with youth

MODULE 1

Root Causes in Central America

- Get a more in-depth look at the daily challenges that Central American youth face.
- Gain insight into how the ELCA serves these young people and what you can do to help.
- Connect with youth in Central America online to share experiences.

MODULE 2

Young migrants in the United States

- Learn about the challenges that young immigrants face in the United States.
- Learn how ELCA congregations accompany migrants in their new communities. How can you get involved? What does it look like to live out the word “accompaniment”?
- Connect with Latino youth online.

MODULE 3

African and Middle Eastern refugees in Egypt

- What are the root causes in the Middle East and Africa that drive youth from across the region to seek refuge in Cairo?
- How is the ELCA able to give hope and accompany youth halfway around the world? How can you get involved?
- Speak with young refugees in the St. Andrew’s Refugee Service (StARS) program in Cairo, Egypt.
