

Report of the Secretary

We gather in Milwaukee under the theme “We are church.” Our confessions define the church as “the assembly of saints in which the gospel is taught purely and the sacraments are administered rightly.”<sup>1</sup> The church is centered on the “means of grace” or where the Holy Spirit is giving the gift of faith. We are here because of God.

Much of what the secretary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America is tasked to do may look like the institutional custodian of the organization. In many respects that is true. The secretary is responsible for the minutes, rosters, constitutions, legal issues, risk management, archives, and event planning of this church. I need regular reminders that we are about the mission that God has given us. I have said that the constitution should provide the structure we need to accomplish the mission to which we have been called. The mission is the focus, not the structure. If the structure impedes our mission, then the structure needs to be changed.

“We are church” is one of Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton’s four statements of emphasis: “We are church, we are Lutheran, we are church together, and we are church for the sake of the world.” Most of what the churchwide organization does is seen under these four statements. It begins with God calling us into this church and moving us into the world.

You and I have been placed in this church by the Holy Spirit. We serve together with that reality before us. We are members of God’s church so that we may proclaim the gospel and share the sacraments, so that the grace of God may be seen and shared in the world.

Responsibilities

In a year when the ELCA will be electing a new secretary, voting members should know what responsibilities this office entails. The secretary is an officer of the ELCA, serving under the presiding bishop and with the other officers and leaders of this church. The position is well described in the governing documents of this church and also requires the ability to respond and adapt to ever-changing contexts.

The duties of the secretary of this church are established in the Constitutions, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Provision 13.41. states:

The secretary shall serve under the presiding bishop of this church, providing leadership, as specified in Chapter 11 of this constitution, and shall fulfill the normal functions of the secretary of a corporation.

The specific duties assigned to the secretary are described in the bylaws that follow that provision and in other places in the constitution. Most are listed in bylaw 13.41.02. The secretary shall:

- a. Be responsible for the minutes and records of the Churchwide Assembly, Church Council, Executive Committee, and Conference of Bishops, and shall receive complete minutes for permanent record of all boards and committees of the churchwide organization.
- b. Maintain the rosters of ministers, congregations, and synods.
- c. Provide for the publication of official documents and policies of this church; pre-assembly reports; assembly minutes; a directory of congregations, rostered persons, and entities of this church; and other informational and statistical material.
- d. Receive the annual report of the congregations in a form devised by the secretary, summarize the information, and make the summary available to this church.
- e. Oversee the general counsel and coordinate the use of legal services by the churchwide organization.
- f. Be responsible for the archives of this church.
- g. Implement and operate a records management system for the churchwide organization.
- h. Arrange for and manage churchwide meetings, including the Churchwide Assembly, Church Council and Conference of Bishops, and others.
- i. Have custody of the seal, maintain a necrology, and attest documents.

The secretary is to prepare interpretations of the Constitutions, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (13.41.04.). In consultation with the presiding bishop, the secretary is to prepare proposed amendments to the governing documents of this church. The secretary is also responsible for providing staff support to the Nominating Committee and to the nomination process of the ELCA Church Council.

To accomplish these responsibilities, the secretary relies on a staff of dedicated, hardworking people. Many of these people have significant tenure in their positions and with the churchwide organization. It is a priority for all in the Office of the Secretary to give prompt and accurate support to those who contact this office. I am very proud of the people who work in this office and the work they are doing.

Staff of the Office of the Secretary

The work of the Office of the Secretary requires people who have unique skills. The various tasks, from meeting planning to risk management, from record management to constitutional interpretation, require a group of knowledgeable people. We have been blessed with just such a group. Those marked in bold serve with me as the management team for this office.

Since the 2016 Churchwide Assembly, the Office of the Secretary has experienced changes in the staff. Moving to a digital directory from a printed yearbook caused us to restructure. The Office of the Secretary combined the two positions that had been filled by Ms. Marie Fellows and Mr. Tom Ehlen. Both of these staff members had significant tenure with the organization. Ms. Emmalene Harbin, who served as a senior meeting planner, retired at the end of 2016. Mr. Phil Harris retired from the general counsel position at the end of 2017. Ms. Jill Hetland left the archive assistant position when she moved to Arizona in 2018. Mr. Frank Imhoff retired from the manager of official documentation position in November 2018. Ms. Mary Beth Nowak retired as director for meeting management in March 2019. All of these people made significant contributions to this office. While we have filled these positions with very good people, their predecessors are missed as we do our work.

The Office of the Secretary is a service unit to the whole church. We respond daily to congregational pastors and members, synod bishops and staff, and staff of the churchwide organization. We relate to the separately incorporated ministries of this church. We do all of this so the members of this church can serve God’s call to serve the whole of creation.

Constitutions

Most of the amendments that the Church Council has proposed to this assembly fall into the category of housekeeping. Before retiring, Mr. Phil Harris went through all three constitutions looking for internal consistency between the ELCA Constitution, the Constitution for Synods, and the Model Constitution for Congregations. The rationale for these changes is available in a document that accompanied these proposed amendments. I encourage you to review that document and all of the amendments as you prepare for the assembly.

One set of amendments comes from the recommendations of the Entrance Rite Discernment Task Force. The 2016 Churchwide Assembly amended the constitution to create the roster of Ministers of Word and Service and, pending the outcome of the task force’s study, approved consecration as the appropriate entrance rite. The task force is now recommending that ordination be the entrance rite used for this roster.

A second question posed to the task force was the status of ministers of Word and Service as laypeople when it comes to the ELCA’s “representational principles” (5.01.f. and 5.01.g.). The 1993 Churchwide Assembly established three “lay rosters.” The task force is recommending that laity be defined as those who are not on the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament or the roster of Ministers of Word and Service. An implementing continuing resolution would allow deacons who have been elected to lay positions to finish the terms to which they have been elected but would prohibit their reelection to a position to be filled by a layperson. Please note that at this assembly, people on the roster of Ministers of Word and Service still count as laity. If the amendment is adopted, it will take effect following this assembly.

I have been encouraging congregations to review their constitutions every three years after the Churchwide Assembly. Amendments to the Model Constitution for Congregations are adopted every time we meet in assembly. The process for amendment is very easy. If the amendment brings the congregation’s constitution into conformity with the model, adoption requires only a single ballot and a simple majority vote. If congregations were to do this, their constitutions would be updated in a regular and timely manner. I encourage you, the voting members of this assembly, to join me in so prompting our congregations.

Digital directory

Through a mutual decision with 1517 Media, we discontinued publishing an annual yearbook in 2018. All the information that was in the yearbook is now available through the ELCA Digital Directory, available online at directory.elca.org. One must have a valid email address or an account with netcommunity. The login information you used for this assembly will allow you access to the directory. More information about the directory can be found in the “Other” section of the Pre-Assembly Report.

Working with the synods of this church, we are attempting to provide the most current contact information for congregations and rostered ministers. The directory reflects the latest information we have received from synods. With the yearbook, this information was a snapshot of the information the Office of the Secretary had on Sept. 1 of the previous year.

We will be working to expand the directory’s functionality as we move forward. Comments or ideas for improvement are always welcome. Previous yearbooks are being digitally archived and are available as resources from the [Office of the Secretary page at elca.org](http://Office of the Secretary page at elca.org).

Congregational report

Among the appendices to this report you will find the 2019 Congregational Report form and an early summary of the information gathered. I get emails and letters concerned that this reporting of numbers and finances is being used to gauge congregational vitality.

I agree that the congregational report is not a good indicator of a congregation’s activities or the quality of its ministry. I view these forms as more of a diagnostic tool, like blood pressure or temperature taken in a doctor’s office. The report is not the full picture, but it can help us to ask more questions. Annual reports such as these are used by Planning, Research, and Evaluation staff to help the churchwide organization see where the church is today and what trends are developing.

From previous years, I can say that I see the ELCA as a very generous church. While our baptized membership has been on a downward trend since the forming of this church, unrestricted giving to congregations has remained constant or has increased. Our members are very generous in their financial support of this church. We are also a very wealthy church. The property assets of the congregations of this church and the endowment funds held by all three expressions of this church are significant. The question of stewardship of these assets is one that we should be intentional in asking in the coming years. This is not a matter of keeping open the doors of a shrinking church by selling its assets; it is a question of how we use what we have received in ways that share the gospel and open us up to increased ministry.

I do not have the response rate for last year’s reports as I write this. When we were formed as a denomination, 90% of congregations completed these reports. The percentage of completed forms decreased significantly over time. Last year the response rate increased to 78.3%. I have stated that my goal would have us over 80%. I am not sure we have reached that goal. I will report that rate in my verbal report at the assembly. Completing an annual congregational report is a responsibility of the pastor of each congregation (*C9.12.). I know from personal experience that congregations use this information at the time of calling a pastor and that pastors use it when looking at a call to a congregation. I will continue to encourage all of our congregations to file an annual congregational report.

You will find the data from the latest reporting period in the appendices of this report. I will have further comments on this data as part of my verbal report to the assembly.

Digitizing roster files

Every minister of Word and Sacrament and every minister of Word and Service has a roster file in the office of the minister's synod or the Office of the Secretary if the minister has been removed from the roster. In 2017, the Office of the Secretary started a project to digitize these files for easier transfer and more efficient storage. In 2018, one synod from each region participated in a pilot project in making this transition for files sent to the Office of the Secretary. This project has now expanded to another nine synods.

There will be a gradual transition from paper to digital records. I can foresee a time when these records will be digital in both synod offices and the churchwide office. That is in the future, but the process has begun. I want to commend Ms. Lauren Goe, manager for records and roster, and Ms. Cathy Lundeen, archivist for collection management and development, for reviewing and updating the guidelines for the care of these files. With the help of the legal team in the Office of the Secretary, the standards for what should be in a roster file have been clarified. I hope that in the future we will see greater consistency in what is contained in a roster file and, with the digital format, have greater ease in transferring them as necessary.

Polity

One of my consistent themes in this office is that we have a unique polity as the ELCA. If you read the reports of my predecessors, the Rev. Lowell Almen and Mr. David Swartling, you may be struck by the number of times they reminded us that we are part of a three-expression, interdependent church. There is one church, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. It exists in three expressions. Each expression has its own identity as it is also part of this church.

I have said that the genius description of this church is 5.01.c.:

The congregations, synods, and churchwide organization of this church are interdependent partners sharing responsibly in God's mission. In an interdependent relationship primary responsibility for particular functions will vary between the partners. Whenever possible, the entity most directly affected by a decision shall be the principal party responsible for decision and implementation, with the other entities facilitating and assisting. Each congregation, synod, and separately incorporated ministry, as well as the churchwide organization itself, is a separate legal entity and is responsible for exercising its powers and authorities.

The ELCA has not always been good at identifying which expression is "most directly affected by a decision." We have been good at thinking our favorite expression is the one most directly affected, but we have not always made this decision in an interdependent relationship. An ongoing challenge for this church will be how we live out our understanding of interdependence. We are all—congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization—the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. The challenge is for us to believe that and to act that way with our partners and in the world.

Conclusion

Anyone who has served in a position such as secretary of the ELCA knows that they do not do it alone. I am grateful to have worked with the staff of the churchwide organization. This group of people is deeply committed to the work we together are trying to do together. If anything, this group has difficulty saying no to another new project or idea. It desires to serve the whole church and the whole world. I am grateful for the way in which we have worked together.

In 2001, I was surprised to join the Conference of Bishops. This group is constantly changing and continuing to work for the best of this church. I wish every member of the ELCA could see how the bishops reflect the diversity of opinions held in this church and at the same time commit deeply to one another and the ministry that we share. I treasure my 12 years in the conference as a bishop of this church and the last six years as secretary of the ELCA. I want to thank these current and previous colleagues.

As I said earlier, I have been blessed with marvelous colleagues in the Office of the Secretary. Working with the management team of Ms. Mary Beth Nowak, Mr. Phil Harris, Deacon Sue Rothmeyer, Mr. Tom Cunniff and Mr. Dana Adams has been a joy. I thank them for their wisdom, dedication, and high standards. They play a significant role in the way this office functions.

Prior to my election in 2013, I spoke with then Presiding Bishop-elect Eaton about whether we could work together. In her quickly changing reality she said she thought we could. Working with her has been a treat. We have some common roots in Ohio, but even more so, we have common roots in the gospel. I have said that it is exciting to have your favorite call as your last call. Working with Presiding Bishop Eaton has made this easily my favorite call in my career.

Lastly, I want to thank my family. Without the constant support of DeDe, my wife of 46 years, this would not have happened. She came to Chicago “retiring” from a 40-year career as a registered nurse and hospital administrator. She quickly saw an opportunity to grow by training to become a faith community nurse and has volunteered two days per week at the Lutheran Center in that capacity. This is the first time we have worked in the same setting with the same people. I know that those around her have been blessed even as I have been.

To my son and daughter and those four grandchildren, I am coming back to Washington. My intent for retirement is to become a grandfather who spoils his grandchildren. I am proud of my children and grandchildren and look forward to increased time with them.

I have been honored to have had these six years in this office. I told the Conference of Bishops and the Church Council at their spring meetings that I never envisioned serving in this way when I started seminary in 1971. When I entered Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, Missouri, the ELCA did not exist. The United States was still fighting the Vietnam War. The nation was regularly confronted by our racial inequality. The country was about to undergo a constitutional crisis with the Watergate hearings and the resignation of a president. The world seemed out of control, and the church was in conflict.

As I prepare to retire, the world has changed and has not changed. I have often said that I am a Lutheran because Lutherans are realists. We know the reality and the deadly power of sin. We do not believe that we will bring about a utopia here on earth. We also know the transforming power of God’s grace, and we live by faith in that reality. We are not surprised by evil. We are disappointed but not surprised. God has called us to this moment to give witness to the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus in the way we live and in the way we are church.

God has given us a mission. We follow knowing that it will take more than our thinking or acting to bring it into reality. That is our task, and God is our strength. We are church, we are Lutheran, we are church together, and we are church for the sake of the world. Thanks be to God.

The Rev. Wm Chris Boerger, secretary

Roster Statistics

Appendix B

The secretary is responsible for maintaining the official rosters of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. These include the rosters of congregations, ministers of Word and Service and ministers of Word and Sacrament.

Roster of Congregations

The ELCA counted 9,091 congregations on December 31, 2018, including 117 congregations under development.

The record of those added to the roster of congregations is indicated in Table 1.

The record of removals from the roster of congregations by categories is shown in Table 2.

The process for withdrawal of a congregation is specified by constitutional provisions 9.62. and 9.71. in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

“Merged” is defined as involving a congregation giving up its separate identity and uniting with an already existing congregation (i.e., being merged into an existing congregation).

“Consolidated” is defined as involving two or more congregations that join together to become a new entity with a new name and a new congregation identification number (i.e., the congregations are consolidated to become a new congregation).

The roster of congregations is published online in the ELCA digital directory, prepared by staff of the Office of the Secretary. Congregations that have been received into this church or that have been consolidated, merged, withdrawn, disbanded, or removed are listed online in the digital directory.
