

Report of the Secretary

Embody the Word. That is the theme around which this church will assemble when we gather in Columbus in August. Staff members of the Office of the Secretary have been embedded in words as we seek to prepare for that assembly. We share word of some of those words in this report.

Future Church/New Office of the Secretary

On Feb. 1, 2021, the churchwide organization ushered in Future Church. While the work and staff of the former Office of the Secretary continue, we are grateful for the new Office of the Secretary (OS) which now includes the areas of Synod Relations, Governance, and Research and Evaluation. We have appreciated new opportunities to work together and value the even closer collegial relationships that this new design allows.

Churchwide Assembly-related matters

Constitutional Revisions

Official notice was sent to synod bishops in January 2022 of constitutional revisions the Church Council is proposing for possible action at the 2022 Churchwide Assembly. The constitutional changes, as well as rationale for these changes, are available for voting members to review in the Pre-Assembly Report.

Nominating Committee

The Nominating Committee has been at work for the past two years to provide slates to the 2022 Churchwide Assembly for the Committee on Appeals, the Nominating Committee, the Committee on Discipline, and youth members of the Church Council, as well as nominations for the boards of separately incorporated ministries. Nominations from the floor may be submitted either electronically using the CWA Guide app or on paper forms to the Nominations Desk of the assembly prior to the deadline of Tuesday, Aug. 9, 11:45 A.M. The rules for nominations can be found in the Pre-Assembly Report. We are grateful to the entire committee for its work, and particularly thank Louis Moehlmann for his willingness to serve as chair.

Memorials Committee

The Memorials Committee met June 24–25, 2022, to review the 78 memorials submitted by synod assemblies during the past triennium and make appropriate recommendations for assembly action. The Report of the Memorials Committee is available as part of the Pre-Assembly Report. The Memorials Committee has asked the 2022 Churchwide Assembly to separately consider three memorials. The remaining memorials will be acted upon en bloc, that is, in one group. Voting members at the assembly have until Tuesday, Aug. 9, 11:45 a.m., to request that memorials contained in the original report be pulled out of en bloc or be amended, or that a substitute motion be considered. We are grateful to the entire committee for its work, and particularly thank Cheryl Chatman and Joe Nolte for their willingness to serve as co-chairs.

Churchwide Assembly hearings

The Churchwide Assembly Planning Team took the lead from synod assembly experiences and decided to host hearings online prior to the 2022 Churchwide Assembly. We hope this new online format provides more time for voting members to become sufficiently informed regarding legislative business and other important matters before the assembly. Hearings are non-legislative sessions designed to hear certain proposals scheduled for assembly action or information sessions at the 2022 Churchwide Assembly. According to the “Rule for Hearings,” voting members, advisory members, resource members, and other categories approved by the Church Council may attend with voice. Others may watch the hearing through identified livestream options and shall not have voice.

The dates and times for the three scheduled hearings are:

- Aug. 2, 7:00–8:00 p.m. (CDT): 2023–2025 budget proposal.
- Aug. 3, 7:00–8:00 p.m. (CDT): General session on memorials.
- Aug. 4, 7:00–8:00 p.m. (CDT): Listening event for “government and civil engagement” social statement.

The presentation portion of the hearings will be recorded for viewing later. More information about registering for the Zoom webinar or watching the livestream will be posted at www.elca.org/churchwideassembly.

Vice president election

The 2022 Churchwide Assembly will be electing a vice president for a six-year term. In 2018, the following continuing resolution was adopted by the Church Council:

In a year when the vice president or secretary shall be elected, the voting members elected to serve at the Churchwide Assembly shall be invited to identify the names of up to three persons who might be considered for election as vice president or secretary. Names shall be submitted to the Office of the Secretary at least four months prior to the assembly. The Office of the Secretary shall contact those persons identified and request biographical information. At least 60 days prior to the Churchwide Assembly, the biographical information received from those persons open to consideration shall be distributed to the voting members.

In mid-February 2022, voting members of the 2022 Churchwide Assembly received a letter inviting them to identify the names of up to three persons who might be considered for election as vice president; a follow-up reminder was sent in mid-March. The deadline for submitting names was April 1. Those identified were asked to return a biographical information form if they were interested in having their names considered. The names and biographical information of those who returned forms by May 1 are included in the Pre-Assembly Report. We did not report the number of times a person's name was identified, nor did we share the names of those who did not return biographical forms. The biographical information will remain available until the assembly convenes on Aug. 9 and then will be removed from the online materials. The first ballot for vice president will be an ecclesiastical ballot where voting members can vote for any lay member of an ELCA congregation, whether pre-identified or not.

As we prepare to elect a new vice president, my thoughts turn to our beloved colleague, Bill Horne, who served in that role just shy of five years. I was grateful for the opportunity to attend Bill's funeral in August 2021. As I walked into the worship space, I was struck that, in addition to countless photos of Bill shown on the screens, there were several of Bill's quotes displayed. One struck a particularly poignant note for me: "But faith provides you with an understanding of how to reconcile death."

As we all have struggled to reconcile ourselves to Bill's sudden and unexpected death, Bill's thought-filled and faith-filled words provide a comforting reminder of resurrection promise. It was a gift to be able to join with others in celebrating the wonderful ways in which Bill lived out his various senses of vocation. As Bishop Eaton so poignantly stated in her sermon at the funeral, while we in the ELCA thought he was our Bill, he was a man who was so highly respected and loved in so many contexts: the military, the city of Clearwater, the Florida-Bahamas Synod, his local congregation, and his family and friends. Thanks be to God for this man who enriched the lives of so many and embodied his faith so deeply in the many ways he lived out his call.

This church is deeply indebted to Carlos Peña for his gracious willingness to step into the role of interim vice president, having served as vice president from 2003–2016. While I had gotten to know Carlos from his previous service on the Church Council, it has been a gift to work with him more closely during these past several months. He brings such a sense of vocation to his work on behalf of this church and shares his wisdom and experience so generously and graciously.

Synod-related matters

Synod Assemblies/Electronic meetings

The World Health Organization (WHO) declared COVID-19 a global pandemic on March 11, 2020. On Friday, March 13, the Conference of Bishops received recommendations from the Office of the Presiding Bishop and the Office of the Secretary regarding postponing synod assemblies. I am grateful to former Secretary David Swartling for offering his wise legal and parliamentary counsel as we formulated that initial set of recommendations. Little did we know how many times we would need to amend those initial recommendations!

As congregations and synods wrestled with the complexities of holding meetings during a time of pandemic, the Office of the Secretary consulted frequently with bishops, synod attorneys, and others as questions arose. In addition, OS sponsored a series of question-and-answer sessions with bishops, synod officers, and synod staff to address the legal and constitutional issues posed by the need for remote meetings. These were summarized in a resource document that was made widely available to synods and congregations on ELCA.org to help them navigate the situation.

OS continues to urge synods and congregations to review their constitutions and consider amendments that will allow more flexibility regarding the timing of assemblies and regular meetings and the election and terms of officers and council members. Thankfully, where constitutions were rigid or vague, state codes often provided helpful guidance. The 12th edition of Robert's Rules of Order, published in 2020, includes expanded information regarding electronic meetings.

Bishop elections

The 2020 synod assembly season was extremely challenging, as synods needed to make decisions in the early days of the pandemic regarding bishop elections. With good cooperation and resourcing between the Office of the Secretary and the synods holding elections, and between the synods themselves, 10 synods were able to hold productive assemblies, electing nine new bishops:

Bishop Virginia S. Aebischer (South Carolina Synod)
Bishop Laura L. Barbins (Northeastern Ohio Synod)
Bishop Amy L. Current (Southeastern Iowa Synod)
Bishop Christopher deForest (Northeastern Pennsylvania Synod)
Bishop Anne C. Edison-Albright (East-Central Synod of Wisconsin)
Bishop Tessa R. Moon Leiseth (Eastern North Dakota Synod)
Bishop Joy F. Mortensen-Wiebe (South-Central Synod of Wisconsin)
Bishop Amy J. Odgren (Northeastern Minnesota Synod)
Bishop Craig A. Schweitzer (Western North Dakota Synod)

Seven new bishops were elected in 2021:

Bishop Brenda K. Bos (Southwest California Synod)
Bishop Kevin T. Jones (Northeastern Iowa Synod)
Bishop Felix J. Malpica (La Crosse Area Synod)
Bishop Lee M. Miller II (Upstate New York Synod)
Bishop Diane H. Pederson (Southwestern Minnesota Synod)
Former Bishop Megan M. Rohrer (Sierra Pacific Synod)
Bishop Paula J. Schmitt (Allegheny Synod)

Four new bishops were elected in 2022:

Bishop-elect Stacie R. Fidler (Northern Illinois Synod), term begins September 1, 2022
Bishop-elect Scott A. Johnson (Nebraska Synod), term begins September 1, 2022
Bishop-elect Craig A. Miller (Upper Susquehanna Synod), term begins September 1, 2022
Bishop-elect David C. Nagler (Pacifica Synod), term begins August 1, 2022

New Bishops Formation 2022, part one, was held at the Lutheran Center in Chicago June 27–30, 2022. Part two of the Formation will occur Sept. 25–26, prior to the fall gathering of the Conference of Bishops.

We are abundantly grateful to the 65 synod bishops who are part of the Conference of Bishops for their faith-filled service to their individual synods and to the whole church.

Synod vice presidents

The synod vice presidents met electronically the weekend of Oct. 8–9, 2021, welcoming newly elected vice presidents and providing an orientation and overview of the responsibilities and role of synod vice president. Several members of the Office of the Secretary presented information regarding constitutions, roster matters, legal concerns, and bishop elections. The synod vice presidents look forward to gathering in-person at the Churchwide Assembly and will continue to regularly meet online to receive information and updates regarding their role as vice president.

Synod secretaries

The Office of the Secretary held a webinar for synod secretaries in September 2021. Mindful that both new and ongoing secretaries would be in attendance, we provided a general overview of the role and responsibilities of the office. We intend to make this an annual event as we welcome those new to this role following synod assembly elections in the spring and learn from those who have held these roles for several years.

Priority work during the past triennium

Committee on Appeals/Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline

The Office of the Secretary convened the Committee on Appeals in early January 2020. This is one of the committees elected by the Churchwide Assembly, and its responsibilities are outlined in Chapter 20 of the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. In short, they are tasked with receiving “appeals from disciplinary proceedings and petitions for the recall of an officer,” [20.20] and they “shall establish definitions and guidelines, subject to approval by the Church Council, to enable clear and uniform application of the grounds for discipline of officers, rostered ministers, congregations, and members of congregations.” [20.21] It is for the latter task that they were convened. The committee is constitutionally tasked with electing its own officers, and the following were elected: Mr. Murray Sagsveen, chair; the Rev. Fritz Fowler, vice chair; and the Rev. Cheryl Meinschein, secretary.

At the spring 2021 Church Council meeting the Committee on Appeals proposed revisions to Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline to address: (a) changes to the rosters and entrance rite adopted by the 2016 and 2019 Churchwide Assemblies; (b) changes to the law related to same-gender marriage; and (c) changes to the Constitutions, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the ELCA. Following the adoption of these revisions, the committee commenced a full, substantive review of Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline. The committee undertook a listening process that involved four townhall sessions, a detailed survey, nine regional consultations with bishops, and individual sessions with various constituencies such as ethnic ministry associations and the LGBTQIA+ community. They then began a year-long drafting process, meeting every two weeks. Careful attention was paid to the social statements and social messages of this church. At various points in the process the Conference of Bishops was updated and given opportunity for feedback. The result was an up-to-date document with clearer definitions and more attention to topics that research had indicated needed to be revised or addressed for the first time. The draft was given final approval by the Church Council in April 2021, with the committee then charged with adding a definition of “promiscuity” to the “Definitions” section of the document, which was provided in November 2021. In all, the process spanned two years.

After meeting for two years online (sometimes bi-monthly!), the Committee on Appeals finally gathered in-person in Chicago this past March. The committee approved editorial revisions to the “Rules Governing Discipline Proceedings against Rostered Ministers and Congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America,” which were approved by the Church Council at its April 2022 meeting. We also had the opportunity to thank outgoing members/officers Murray Sagsveen, the Rev. Fritz Fowler, and the Rev. Cheryl Meinschein and enjoy a celebratory dinner as a sign of appreciation for the committee’s many hours of dedicated work revising Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline.

Congregation reports

We share words of gratitude for the diligence so many congregations have demonstrated in submitting their annual Congregation Reports during a time of such disruption of the usual patterns.

Measuring average weekly worship attendance continues to be a challenge, with new complexity added as congregations have moved into hybrid in-person and online worship and have gone back and forth between varying combinations of the two. There is no single formula that can accurately reflect the realities of the many congregational contexts, unfortunately. We encourage congregations to do their best at providing appropriate information for their situations.

The Office of the Secretary is working on revisions of the annual Congregation Report forms, with a goal of improving online submission and simplifying the whole process. Improvements to the congregation trend report will also be unveiled this fall, with a simplified graphic dashboard-style reporting of the statistics for each congregation appearing alongside the more detailed trend report we are all used to.

We are making improvements to the congregation information that appears in the online ELCA Directory, including more detailed information about accessibility for persons with disabilities that will allow those seeking a congregation to search for congregations that can meet their needs. We are also working to make it easier for congregations to request updates to their directory information.

Digitization of roster files

The pandemic has highlighted the need to look toward increased digitization of important documents such as roster files. The Office of the Secretary is in the early stages of developing a list of “best practices” for synods to consider when looking toward digitization of the files in their keeping. If your synod is already working on digitization of files, we would encourage synod staff to contact the Rev. Keith Fry in OS, because we would like to put together a small working group to develop guidelines and suggestions that would be helpful to other synods across this church.

No report of the secretary would be complete without words of appreciation for the dedicated staff of this office. Weekly meetings of my direct reports (Dana Adams, Deanna Brend, Tom Cuniff, Keith Fry, MaryAnn Schwabe, and Jodi Slaterry) provide both good counsel for one another and good humor! This church is blessed by the faithful and skilled work performed by the whole staff of OS: Adam DeHoek, Dan Eppley, Aja Favors, Lauren Gioe, Jennifer Johnson, Marit Johnson, Cathy Lundeen, Rosa Perez, Christina Ptack, Joseph Schmidt, Rob Thoma, Joel Thoreson, and Natalie Young. And we are grateful for the ongoing support and wisdom of those who have served as secretaries of this church: the Rev. Lowell Almen, David Swartling, and the Rev. Chris Boerger.

These next days will be extraordinarily busy ones for the Office of the Secretary. I invite your prayers and your patience as we attempt to respond as quickly and helpfully as possible to the many communications we receive. As steeped as we will be in words during these coming days, may we also stay centered in the ways in which we embody the Word for this church and for the world.

Deacon Sue E. Rothmeyer, secretary of the ELCA, together with

Mr. Dana Adams, director for meeting management

Mr. Thomas Cunniff, general counsel for the ELCA

The Rev. N. Keith Fry, executive for administration, Office of the Secretary

Deacon MaryAnn Schwabe, executive for synod relations

Ms. Jodi Slattery, executive for governance

Roster Statistics

Appendix C

The secretary is responsible for maintaining the official rosters of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. These include the rosters of congregations, ministers of Word and Service and ministers of Word and Sacrament.

Roster of Congregations

The ELCA counted 8,894 congregations on December 31, 2020, including 71 congregations under development.

The record of those added to the roster of congregations is indicated in Table 1.

The record of removals from the roster of congregations by categories is shown in Table 2.

The process for withdrawal of a congregation is specified by constitutional provisions 9.62. and 9.71. in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

“Merged” is defined as involving a congregation giving up its separate identity and uniting with an already existing congregation (i.e., being merged into an existing congregation).

“Consolidated” is defined as involving two or more congregations that join together to become a new entity with a new name and a new congregation identification number (i.e., the congregations are consolidated to become a new congregation).

The roster of congregations is published online in the ELCA digital directory, prepared by staff of the Office of the Secretary. Congregations that have been received into this church or that have been consolidated, merged, withdrawn, disbanded, or removed are listed online in the digital directory.

Change of Synod Relationship

Any change in a congregation’s synod relationship is to be reported to the Churchwide Assembly. As provided by ELCA bylaw 10.01.03., “Any congregation in a border area desiring to change its synod relationship may do so upon approval of the synod assemblies of the synods concerned, which shall report any such change to the Churchwide Assembly.” No congregations reported changes in their synod relationships in the 2019–2021 triennium.

Roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament

As of December 31, 2021, the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament of this church listed a total of 15,371 ministers of Word and Sacrament. Included in that number were 4,665 women, six who did not identify on the gender binary, and 785 persons of color or whose primary language is other than English.

Additions to the roster of Ministers of Word and Sacrament take place only in the ways defined by the constitution and bylaws of the ELCA. Those specific ways are:

1. Individuals who are ordained in accord with the constitution and bylaws of this church in effect at the time of their ordinations, after having been approved by a duly constituted synod candidacy committee and having received and accepted a regular, attested Letter of Call to be a pastor.
2. Individuals received:
  - a. Individuals approved by a synod candidacy committee who previously were ordained in another Lutheran church body or another Christian church body, under bylaw 7.31.04., whose ordination is recognized by this church under the policy that addresses such recognition. Others would be ordained by this church under the policy of such reception.
  - b. Individuals received, under churchwide bylaw 8.63.05.c., through the candidacy process for the roster of ordained ministers who were ordained in a full-communion partner church body.
3. Individuals reinstated to the roster of ministers of Word and Sacrament, under churchwide bylaw 7.31.05., who previously were ordained in this church or one of its predecessor church bodies.

Roster of Ministers of Word and Service

As of December 31, 2021, the roster of Ministers of Word and Service numbered 1,193 people, including 981 women and 22 persons of color or whose primary language is other than English (see Table 5). In addition to the statistics listed in Table 5, the ELCA received transfers from the ELCIC in 2020.

Additions to the roster of Ministers of Word and Service take place only in the ways defined by the constitution and bylaws of the ELCA. Those specific ways are:

1. Individuals who are ordained in accord with the constitution and bylaws of this church in effect at the time of their ordinations, after having been approved by a duly constituted synod candidacy committee and having received and accepted a regular, attested Letter of Call to be a deacon.
2. Individuals reinstated to the roster of ministers of Word and Service, under churchwide bylaw 7.61.07., who previously were rostered in this church or one of its predecessor church bodies.

The names of those approved by the ELCA for admission to the roster of Ministers of Word and Service—as well as the names of those removed from the roster—are also listed in the digital directory.
