APPRENTICE OF THE WAY

You're creative in tough spots and willing to work hard to complete any job or mission. If your friends need you, you'll do anything to help them; you love gadgetry and technology and put them to good use in your daily life.

Spiritual gifts

Giving: The spiritual gift that enables the receiver to recognize God's blessings and to respond to those blessings by generously and sacrificially giving of one's resources (time, talent and treasure).

People with this gift are usually responsible, resourceful, trusting in God, charitable, disciplined, sensitive, stewardship-oriented.

Cautions for people with this gift: remembering that the church's mission is guided by its leaders and not determined by the giver's gift; greed.

Biblical references: Luke 21:1-4, 2 Corinthians 9:6-15

Hospitality: The spiritual gift that causes the receiver to joyfully welcome and receive guests and those in need of fellowship, food, lodging or care.

People with this gift are usually friendly, gracious, inviting, trusting, caring, responsive, warm.

Cautions for people with this gift: viewing their gift of hospitality as just "entertaining"; remembering to ask God whom to befriend and serve.

Biblical references: Romans 12:13, Romans 16:23a, Luke 10:38

Called to Lead

Artistry: The spiritual gift that gives the receiver the skill to create artistic expressions that produce a spiritual response of strength and inspiration.

People with this gift are usually expressive, imaginative, creative, unconventional, sensitive, idea-oriented.

Cautions for people with this gift: remembering that art is not for art's sake but rather to glorify God and edify others; finding constructive criticism difficult to accept; being uncooperative and needing to work at being a team player.

Biblical references: Exodus 31:1-11, Psalm 149:3a

PLANET CHENTEER

You have wonderful gifts that we encourage you to use faithfully among your family and friends, at your workplace and/or school, in the community in which you live, and in your faith community, too. Within the church, you may be especially gifted at: designing and leading worship; bringing Scripture alive through music, media and other arts; inspiring others in supporting a cause; inviting people into deep conversations as a pastor, deacon, chaplain or lay leader.
