As members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA), we are called to be part of God's work in the world. Through ELCA World Hunger, our church creatively and courageously works toward a just world where all are fed.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, these vital hunger ministries have been especially needed. Whether you are meeting online or in person, this guide is designed to equip you with some of the newest and most popular resources to activate your congregation as we continue the work to end hunger and poverty.

With the Holy Spirit and each other, we are achieving things on a scale and scope we could never do otherwise. Thank you!

In the last year, as the world has reeled from the effects of a deadly pandemic, we have seen the number of hungry people around the world rise, watched as food pantries and soup kitchens expanded to serve an ever-growing number of guests, and longed together in hope for the time "when [we] will hunger no more, and thirst no more ... and God will wipe away every tear from [our] eyes" (Revelation 7:16).

This Lent, you're invited to join fellow supporters in pledging to end hunger together during ELCA World Hunger's 40 Days of Giving. Your generosity is critical to support people around the world facing hunger and poverty.

Bring ELCA World Hunger into the life of your congregation and family with resources that are available to use at home, online or in person. These include:

- 1) A devotional calendar with daily ideas for reflection, giving and action;
- 2) A weekly study inviting you and your congregation into deeper reflection on faith and justice, with inspirational stories about how your gifts to ELCA World Hunger are at work in the world; and
- 3) Additional resources, including an inspirational weekly email series.

We invite you to study, pray, be challenged and give with us during ELCA World Hunger's 40 Days of Giving — for the good of our families, our neighbors and communities around the world.

Visit ELCA.org/40Days for more information, to order resources and sign up for emails, and to begin planning your congregation's participation and fundraising.

LENTEN LITANY

Isaiah 58

God of justice, God of life, in this season of Lent, we remember the work that you call us to do:

"Is this not the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke?" (58:6).

Recall us to your promise and make us people of memory:

As we long for clean, safe water, remind your church that you call us to protect access to the natural resources on which life depends.

"Is this not the fast I choose?"

As violence threatens the most vulnerable among us, remind your church that you call us to work for the safety and security of all our neighbors.

"Is this not the fast I choose?"

As injustice leaves its mark on our communities, remind your church that you call us to strive for justice in all the earth.

"Is this not the fast I choose?"

As we face the reality of a hungry world in which some have plenty and many have too little, remind your church that you call us to ensure all are fed.

"Is this not the fast I choose?"

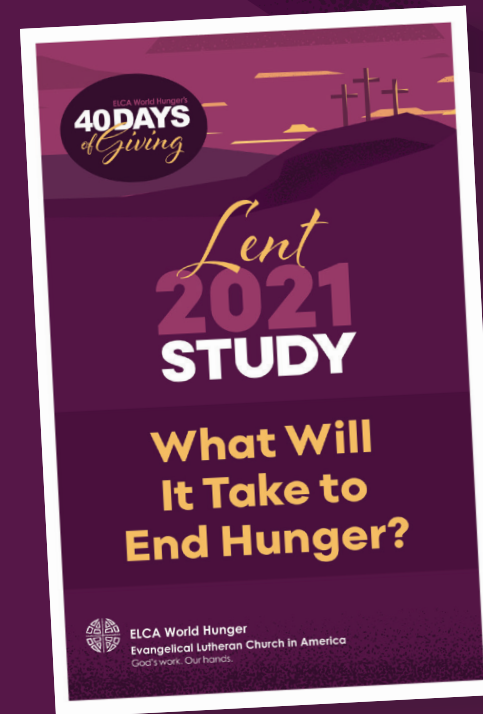

God of justice, God of life, inspire us and incite us with your call and your promise:

"Is this not the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice ... Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin?" (58:6-7).

"Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard" (58:8).

THE FORGOTTEN LUTHER II

When should the church support the state's agenda? When should it resist? What are the options for critical but constructive cooperation? In the essay anthology The Forgotten Luther II: Reclaiming the Church's Public Witness, Lutheran scholars argue for a cogent, clear, biblically based and theologically grounded rationale for how the church speaks and acts in the political arena. This book looks carefully at the public witness of Martin Luther and its meaning for preaching, teaching and carrying out public ministry today. Luther's conviction was that government is responsible to God for containing evil and maintaining good order, and for ensuring that no person lives in hunger or want.

The Forgotten Luther II comes with discussion questions to guide reflection, and video interviews with the authors are available online.

Purchase the book for $16.99 from Fortress Press at fortresspress.com/forgottenlutherii.

A portion of the proceeds will support the ongoing work of ELCA Advocacy through ELCA World Hunger.

You'll find practical tips on logistics, crafting a vision and incorporating your garden into the life of your community.

GET INSPIRED!

In Lincoln, Neb., First Lutheran Church's Fellowship Committee sponsored an Advent Drive-through.

More than 70 families and individuals drove past stations in the church parking lot where they received Advent calendars, a storybook and a take-home bag of the congregation's tasty Sunday-morning donut holes. Passengers dropped off 2,666 cans of food for the Lutheran Food Pantry, qualifying for a challenge donation from the Thrivent 500 Can Drive. A parking lot variation of the Noisy Offering that brings joy when we're in worship together provided more than $700 to "Band of the Strong," an innovative local outreach to youth who are experiencing grief.
