

Legal Issues

Fraud

Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
God's work. Our hands.

Protecting Members from Fraud

Warn members about official or innocent looking communications that are designed to take advantage of them.

- Tips for computer and Internet safety
- E-mail and telephone IRS fraud schemes from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service
- Advance Fee Fraud schemes warnings from the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission

Valuable Tips to Protect Your Identity from Church Mutual

Legal Disclaimer

Information on this document does not constitute legal advice to anyone. In addition, the use of this document, and the sending or receipt of information through ELCA.org does not create attorney-client relationship of any sort. Visitors to ELCA.org should be aware that communication in this manner may not be considered as privileged or confidential. Individuals requiring legal assistance should engage a qualified attorney, licensed to practice law in the particular state or jurisdiction where the legal issues have arisen. Members of the ELCA, pastors, congregations, synods, and others affiliated with this church should always consult their own attorneys, accountants, or similar professionals whenever legal issues or problems arise. Neither the churchwide organization nor the general counsel is responsible for any loss, injury, liability, or damage related to your use of this document, whether from errors or omissions in the content of this document or any linked sites, from the site being down, or from any other use.