Learning Songs from Our World: Intro

The following is the introduction to the ELCA Global Mission DVD teaching resource. Worship that includes global and local voices is a core piece of the Glocal Mission Gatherings, hosted in partnership with the ELCA churchwide organization, synods, and congregations. Renewed by global and local voices, worship can respond to the world we serve, and remember the diverse body of Christ.

Our Stories

The musicians were formed by the Global Mission Formation Team in ELCA Global Mission to provide musical leadership for the Glocal Mission Gatherings hosted by congregations and other Christian communities throughout North America and the Caribbean. Through its intentional diversity—including representation from many countries, denominations, and several cultures—the group embodies ways to stand in mutual solidarity while amplifying marginalized voices.

Glocal music: Moran Ethra

Moran Ethra - stories & learning music.

“Lord, have mercy,” we cry out when our hearts are sore. “Lord, have mercy,” people cried to Jesus when they pleaded for healing. Jesus spoke Aramaic. “Moran Ethra” are the words he would have heard.

Glocal music: Nyanyikanlah

Nyanyikanlah - stories & learning music.

This praise song, often used during offerings, uses words very intentionally. Its full title is “Nyanikanlah nyanjian baru bagi Allah.” Calling the Lord “Allah” expresses commonality with Muslims, who use the same word for God, as Christians.

Glocal music: Mungo Deh

Mungo Deh - stories & learning music.

Language can divide, and language can unite. In northern Nigeria, that bridge language is often Hausa. In Hausa, “Mungo Deh” means “thank you” and “Allah” means God. Singing these words unites people separated by language in praising God as father, God, and king.
