Values

1. Enduring values: founded in faith
Our roots are Lutheran with a strong emphasis on Gospel witness through service to God's people regardless of religion, race, gender or creed. Our member organizations are well-established in their respective communities, tied to neighborhood congregations and have met local needs for more than a century.
2. National scope: local service
Together, we reach across country to share successes. Individually, we offer local and personal services within our communities.
3. Breadth of services
Our members share expertise in developing and providing high-quality, individualized support, including rehabilitation services, work programs, residential services, respite care and independent living. We respect the rights of those we support and help them make responsible choices.
4. Community boards of directors
Member organizations are accountable to volunteer board members not stockholders who work to ensure the member organizations meet individual and community needs.
5. A mutually supporting partnership
Our members have established partnerships with one another to link resources and skills in order to better serve our communities and constituents.
6. Reinvested in mission
Our non-profit organizations invest surplus revenue in service. We are not driven by profit, but by mission to meet the health, spiritual and emotional needs of those served.
