

Faith Proclaimers come in all ages, shapes and sizes!
 In fact, God has special jobs for everyone to do and God has gifted everyone with passions, talents, interests and abilities to accomplish them in amazing ways!

Every home and congregation can be a “proclamation station” as people strive to Let their lights so shine that they may see your good works and glorify your father in heaven.

 Matthew 5:16

- ❖ Some people might have physical gifts for moving their bodies for dance, athletic activities and specialized labor
- ❖ Some might have the gift of voice for public speaking or singing and some have the hand, eye coordination to play musical instruments
- ❖ Some might have the mental gifts for imagining possibilities and interpreting them. Others have the gifts for processing and creating strategies and still others have the gifts for organization and implementation.
- ❖ Some have the emotional gifts of sensitivity and empathy as they focus their attentions on serving or empowering others.
- ❖ Some have all the above and some have more than one.

No matter what! We have all been called to go the depth and the distance in maximizing our God-given potential! -To the depth of our souls where God’s Spirit prompts our passions and commitments to devote each day of our lives to be expressions of God’s love and care for the world.

Bottom line, it’s been God’s trademark to use ordinary people and events to do extraordinary things.

Recognize a group or individual in your congregation who models the role of a “faith proclaimer.”
 Click on the link below to view and print a recognition form.

I WANT TO GIVE A SHOUT-OUT TO...

You may wish to present it to them in a formal way and /or create a display to identify and characterize your home, church or community to be a proclamation station.

You may wish to use a “Proclaimin’ Roles to Play” sheet to inform your work.
 Note that we may have occasions in our lives when we might play any one of these roles.