

GRAND CENTRAL PROCLAMATION STATION

This website is designed to be an interactive, electronic proclamation station!

It features a collection of dramatic story presentations about faith proclaimers from Bible Times which will expand, in time, to include stories about others who have proclaimed their faith throughout history!

Note: We are defining a "faith proclaimer" as one who shares God's story in word or deed.

The stories are designed to give life and breath to people who have named, claimed and proclaimed God's story. To add an additional element of intrigue, the stories will be presented from a unique perspective, e.g. personifying a key inanimate object or using the voice of a key or unsuspecting bystander. They are designed to be presented within the context of a "live" TV program entitled "The Proclamation Station." A bumbling, dramatic, well-intending MC named O-me-o-miah sets the stage for the program, interacts with the audience and interviews faith proclaimers who come out of a "Bible" to highlight the role they played.

Each submission includes:

- 1) A 3-5 minute dramatic characterization of a person who is known to play a significant role in proclaiming and sustaining God's story.
- 2) Backstage Notes
- 3) Two questions about the content of the story
- 4) Two questions to help participants interpret their place in the story
- 5) Brief reference to an experiential activity

The Grand Central Proclamation Station also provides you with an opportunity to recognize faith proclaimers in your own home, church and community.

You may wish to submit your own "faith proclaimin'" stories. Click on the icon to go to a web page where you may email drawings, pictures and/or stories to recognize family members, church members and residents of your local or global community who have similar gifts and/or stories to share.

"I Want to Give a Shout Out to..." certificates are also available to recognize groups or individuals for similar roles they might play. Click on the icon to download the certificate.
