

The Proclamation Station: “Go- Tell It” Media Centers

The “Go -Tell ” Media Centers are set in a multi-media context to model a variety of different ways faith might be shared. The five craft and activity centers are designed to provide ways for children, youth and adults to grow their understanding and desire to share the Good News.

Scan through the program offerings and feel free to adapt them to enrich your own schedule or intent. You might also consider using these activities to enrich other intergenerational or age-specific events throughout the year.

The activity descriptions for each learning center, long with the visual aids, patterns and participant sheets are outlined below. A Program Planning Grid (PDF file) is available to assist you in coordinating some of the details and tasks involved. You may also wish to make signs to identify the location for each craft and activity.

Other resources have been designed to integrate the content of each learning center with the overall theme. The FPBN Gathering activities will introduce and distribute them for participant to use as they move through the “Go -Tell” Media Centers. FPBN I.D. Cards will recognize each participant as a member of the Faith Public Broadcasting Network and “Go-Tell” megaphones will be utilized to celebrate Jesus’ invitation (Matthew 28:19) to “Go-Tell” God’s Story. “Go-Tell” stickers with key learnings from each “Go-Tell” Media Center have been designed to distribute and display on the “Go-tell” megaphones for future references.
